W. M. TRELOAR, Op. 25.

The first system of musical notation for 'The Sleighride'. It consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody in the treble clef features eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures containing a whole note marked with a '0'. The bass clef accompaniment consists of chords and eighth notes.

The second system of musical notation. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The treble clef melody includes some measures with a whole note marked with a '0'. The bass clef accompaniment continues with chords and eighth notes.

The third system of musical notation. It includes a repeat sign (double bar line with two dots) in the middle. A dashed line with the number '8' above it connects the end of the first system to the beginning of this system, indicating an 8-measure repeat. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The fourth system of musical notation. The treble clef melody features many measures with a whole note marked with a '0'. The bass clef accompaniment continues with chords and eighth notes.

The fifth system of musical notation, the final system on the page. It continues the melody and accompaniment, with the treble clef melody featuring many measures with a whole note marked with a '0'. The system concludes with a double bar line.
